- An institute for microbiology and amplied therapy is being constructed in Jena by Jena-Pharm. The institute is to produce streptomycin. The construction project was to be corrected by the end of 1952, but at present construction projects of the People's Police may prevent this deadline from being met. The plant engineer, one (fnu) Häusener, is at present in West Commany attempting to procure materials which are in short sumply; seamless nires and especially lead cable and copper products?
 - The following are the headquarters for six nursing schools which are under construction:

Sexony

Aue

Leinzig

Prandenburg

Frenkfurt/Oder

Thuringia

Jena

Saxony-Anhalt

Halle

Mecklenburg

Greifswald

There are rumors to the effect that these schools are to be used to train military medical corps ressonned.

- 3. The DR Ministry of the Interior has cancelled all contracts for ambulances (Sanitätskraftfehrzeuge) placed by offices (hospitals, etc.) under the Ministry of Health with vehicle factories in Zwickau (DKW in Ziitau and formerly Phänomen). The number for the cancellations is allegedly to relieve the DDF vehicle industry of non-military orders.
- 4. Construction work on the Templin training camp continues full force. Up to 70 percent of the rersonrel of Bau-Union Potadem and Bau-Union Frandenburg, including apprentices, has been transferred to the Templin project. The Templin project also has priority over all other construction in respect to raw materials, such as bricks and cement. Work on several large projects, such as the housing project in Fürstenberg/Oder, the large hospital in Henrigsdorf, the Land embulatories (Landembulatorien) in Brandenburg, the Institute for Nutrition Science (Institut für Ernährungswissenschaft), and the Office for Research on Viterins (Anstelt für Viteminforschung), has been curtailed because of lack of workers and raw material.

5. The DDR State Planning Commission has rejected all requests for the delivery of telephone cables with more than 50 wires (Ader) since about the middle of July 1952. The cause of the block on deliveries is the increased military demand and the decreasing capacity of East German cable manufacturing plants. At present allocation of deliveries is handled by the State Administration for Material Procurement (Staatliche Verwaltung für Material Versorgung), headed by State Secretary Erwin Kerber; formerly the State Secretariat für Construction (Staatssekretariat für Bauwirtschaft), headed by State Secretary Wilhelm Mayer, was responsible for apportioning raterials.

6. At a conference of the State Planning Commission which took place at the end of July 1952 it was announced that the Ministerial Council (Ministerrat) intends to allot to the Simson-Werke, Suhl, arms manufacturers, investments amounting to 260,000,000.00 DM.
